Non-Instructional/Business Operations

SUBJECT: NON-STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM

The Levittown Union Free School District shall permit certain adults to purchase meals through the School Lunch Program. Meals will be served only to the following:

1. Employees of Levittown Union Free School District.
2. State Education Department officials.
3. Employees of other school districts attending meetings and conferences in schools of the Levittown Union Free School District.
4. Guests when accompanied by an administrator.
5. All employees of Levittown Union Free School District are to pay for meals at the current adult price plus applicable sales tax authorized by the Board of Education.
6. Persons serving on food service monitoring committees shall not be charged for food consumed in the course of their official duties.

The Board does not permit anyone to obtain food for which they have not paid, except as specifically authorized above by the Board of Education, whether prepared, unprepared or leftover from the cafeteria. The cook-manager or person in charge of the cafeteria shall be held responsible for enforcing this policy.
