The Application Process: FAFSA

- Free Application for Federal Student Aid
- 2021-22 application available starting October 1st on FAFSA.gov
- Filing deadlines are set by each school's financial aid office

Before Starting FAFSA: FSA ID

- The student and at least one of their parents must each create a Federal Student Aid ID (FSA ID) at FSAID.ed.gov
 - Used to access and electronically sign FAFSA

Typical Questions on FAFSA

- Student and parent identifying information
- Eligibility questions
- College List (up to 10 schools)
- Household income and assets
 - Includes both student and parent income from tax year 2019

Question: Parent Marital Status

- If I am a single parent, do I need the non-custodial parent's information to apply for FAFSA?
 - No, for the FAFSA and NYS aid applications only custodial parent information is needed
 - Non-custodial info may be needed by some private colleges for institutional aid

Question: Income Changes

- What if our family income has changed recently due to job loss, retirement or another situation?
 - The applications require 2019 income tax information to be reported.
 - Contact the college financial aid office after filing FAFSA to request review for special circumstances.

How Is The FAFSA EFC Determined?

Two Parts - Student Contribution & Parent Contribution

- Factors Considered
 - Income from 2019 tax returns
 - Assets – Savings, Investments (not retirement)
 - Number In Family
 - Number In College
 - State of Residence
 - Parent age

The screenshot shows the Federal Student Aid website. At the top, it says "Federal Student Aid" with the tagline "An OFFICE of the U.S. DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION" and "PROUD SPONSOR of the AMERICAN MIND®". There is a search bar on the right. Below the header is a navigation menu with options: "Prepare for College", "Types of Aid", "Who Gets Aid", "FAFSA: Apply for Aid", and "How to Repay Your Loans". The main content area is titled "Types of Aid" and features a blue-tinted background image of students in a classroom. The text reads: "Financial aid is money to help pay for college or career school. Grants, work-study, loans, and scholarships help make college or career school affordable." Below this, there is a section titled "Financial aid is available from a variety of sources." with a "SHARE LINK" icon. A list of sources is provided: "Aid and Other Resources From the U.S. Federal Government", "Aid From Your State Government", "Aid From Your College or Career School", and "Aid From a Nonprofit or Private Organization". A concluding sentence states: "Financial aid can come from federal, state, school, and private sources to help you pay for college or career school." A callout box contains the text: "Besides financial aid, you also should think about what you can do to lower your costs when you go to college."
