The 8th grade trip Mr. Avena said the students were well behaved, and respected each other, and staff. Tire had to be changed on the bus that delayed the trip about two hours. Hershey Park was more crowded than expected. Food lines were longer. Food voucher could only be used in certain places. Next year they want to try and avoid going with too many other schools. Eastern State Penitentiary was a cool place to visit. They visited Ben Franklin's house, Betsy Ross's house, and the Rocky steps. Some students didn't know who rocky was. 6th and 7th grade Adventureland was a great day. The students said the food was excellent. 8th grade students go to Adventureland tomorrow. Everyone will only get two tickets for the moving up ceremony. Not enough space for extra people. Dance attire runs from shorts and collared shirts to dresses. Tee shirt and shorts are fine. The 13th packets will be handed out. Everything for moving up will be in the packet. The doors open at 9:15. Ceremony starts at 10:00. Students should not be there any later than 8:30. The district is getting better at dealing with threats from outside sources. A lot of resources and funds go towards the safety of the students.

They don't need to bring anything for Adventureland for 8th grade, except maybe some spending money. They are watching the weather. They come back around 8th period. 15 adults going.

Mari asked if things may be back to normal regarding overnight trips. Mr. Avena said they are looking at different options. But hope to have school trips back on track, as well as having other options perhaps Medieval Times.
