Food Service: Jeanine Quigley

The kids like the various food options being offered and the kitchen continues to meet quality control standards. I visited the cafeteria on boneless wing day. The kids like that there are many options for dipping. They like the waffle fries, but on that particular day, they complained that they were too crunchy. Regarding food waste, the district will continue to be in communication with schools to determine the best and most manageable solution to help reduce food waste. Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, 4/17

Septa: Next meeting will be 5/6/24 and they will be having budget presentation

Blood Drive is 5/1/24

Old Business: No

New Business: No

Our next meeting is 6/3/24 and will be in person

Adjourned: Kathleen adjourns meeting at 7:38pm
